This Month in the Arts
East Brunswick Public Schools

Secondary Schools Art Show
at the
East Brunswick Public Library

NEW! Join us when students from East Brunswick High School and Churchill Junior High School display work on the walls of the main library as well as in the display cases. Show open during library hours, January 4—30.

Meet The Arts Education Faculty

Matthew McCarthy is originally from Westchester, New York and has been painting since the age of 10. He received his BFA from the School of Visual Arts in 2003 with a major in Illustration. Since that time he has been hired to create numerous freelance illustrations and commissioned paintings, and has worked in the commercial art world as a graphic designer and in the fine art world as a gallery assistant and art handler. In 2005 one of his paintings was selected by the Assistant Curator of the Museum of Modern Art for inclusion in a group exhibition in New York City. Matt began teaching in East Brunswick in 2007 at the elementary schools and Hammarskjold Middle School, and is currently in his second year at East Brunswick High School. He is currently pursuing a MAT in Fine Arts Education from Kean University.

Two EBHS Students Featured in Emerging Artists Competition Sponsored by the Art Administrators of New Jersey

On display
January 6—February 5, 2012
at the
James Howe Gallery at Kean University
Union, New Jersey

A reception and awards ceremony will be held on February 5 from
1:00—3:00 PM

Both Rebecca and Angi are students in Mr. McCarthy's AP Studio Art class.